DETAILED ACTION

This is in response to communication filed on 7/16/07 in which claims 1-29 are pending. The applicant's arguments have been fully considered therefore this case is in condition for allowance.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior arts of record fail to anticipate or render obvious the following recited features: Dividing said third vector into sections and summing the samples in each section and forming a reduced fourth vector out of the summed samples; and performing a frequency to time transform of said fourth vector resulting in a fifth vector, each sample of said fifth vector representing a correlation value for a different code phase as recited in claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Dafesh U.S. Pub No 20030227963 A1 teaches a spread spectrum bit boundary.

Gray U.S. Pub No 20030005008 A1 teaches a method and apparatus for parallel signal processing.

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 4/29/07 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.
